

Louis Clark Named Kiwanis Outstanding Lt. Governor

(January 31, 2009 – Charlotte, NC) Louis Clark Jr. of the Pitt County Professionals Kiwanis Club in Greenville was named Outstanding Lt. Governor for the Kiwanis Carolinas District which is composed of all Kiwanis clubs in North and South Carolina. The award was presented during the Mid Year Kiwanis Conference for the Carolinas District on Saturday, January 31 in Charlotte, NC.

The Outstanding Lt. Governor award is based on performance in growth, service and communication to his division. Clark was also designated as a Distinguished Lt. Governor, which is a prerequisite for the award.

He also received the Governor's Citation for 50% or more clubs distinguished. Nine of eleven Kiwanis Clubs in Division 17 were honored as distinguished clubs. They are Ayden-Grifton, Golden K Greenville, Greater Greenville, Greenville, Greenville – University City, Pitt County Professionals, Pitt Golden K, Washington and Winterville Kiwanis Clubs.

Louis Clark was Lt. Governor of Kiwanis Division 17 during 2007-2008. For more information about Kiwanis Division 17 visit their new website at www.ncdiv17.org.
